NO VOTE ON GITTINS BILL

FRIENDS OF MEASURE DECIDE TO DEFER FINAL ACTION IN ASSEMBLY.

Vote May Come Today or Measure May Go Over Until September, When New York Legislature Is Scheduled to Meet Again After Recess.

New York, July 21.—After a canvass of the Assembly today the friends of the Gittins bill decided not to attempt to pass it, as its defeat would mean that it could not be brought up again at the present session. Should enough votes be found for it, it may be taken up tomorrow, though there is a fear that further consideration may be deferred until September. Today only four votes were needed to insure its passage. If the bill goes over until September it will have to be introduced as a new bill and will have to be passed again in the Senate.

The Gittins bill was passed in the Senate Wednesday by a Democratic-Republican combination, six republicans voting for it and ten Democrats against it. When the bill came up last week it was lost by a vote of 20 ayes to 22 noes. It requires 26 affirmative votes to pass a bill in the Senate. When that vote was taken Senators White, Argetsinger, Ahen Harden and Emerson were among the absentees. These five Senators were present Wednesday and voted for the bill, while Senator Anthony J. Griffin (Dem.) of Manhattan, who voted against the bill last week, also voted for it, making the six needed votes necessary for passage.

The vote on final passage was:

Ayes—Black, Cronin, Cullen, Duhamel, Frawley, Gittins, Grady, Griffin, Harden, Harte, McClelland, McManus, O'Brien, Ramsperger, Sanner, Saxe, Stilwell, C. D. Sullivan, T. D. Sullivan, White, Democrats, and Allen, Argetsinger, Brackett, Emerson, Ormrod and Sage, Republicans.

Noes—Bayne, Burd, Ferris, Fiero, Long, Loomis, Murtaugh, Poilock, Roosevelt and Wagner, Democrats, and Senators Bussey, Coats, Cobb, Heacock, Hewitt, Hinman, Newcomb, Platt, Rose, Thomas, Absentees—Griffith, Hamilton and Travis, Republicans.

Senator Thomas Grady, of New York City, started

THIRTY LEADING MONEY-WINNING OWNERS OF 1911

Last year S. C. Hildreth was the leading American winning owner and it is more than probable that he will hold the same position at the end of this year's racing. But whereas he was then lucky enough to amass the big sum of $152.645 in stable earnings, it is now questionable whether he can reach the $60.000 reark. Had New York racing been resumed it would have been a different story, no doubt. Other owners find the possibility of stable earnings curtailed also, but there are some who have no reason to complain of results. T. C. McHowell, R. N. Smith, W. McLemore, Gallaher Bross. P. M. Walker, T. R. Condran, A. Simens and several others have already won more than they did in all of 1910 and naturally should think well of 1911 as a racing year. With the big stables of last year it is painfully different. Here is how the stable accounts of the thirty leaders of this year now stand:

"and that suggestion was made and Senator Gittins said he would accept it when this bill was before the Codes Committee. It was urged then that the bill be amended to read that any officer or director who knowingly permits gambling should be prosecuted criminally. That would have been a fair and a more sensible proposition. But no, the very revend clergy, including Canon Chase, objected to that word being put in the bill."

Senator Grady said Senator. Wainwright knew perfectly well that it was too late now at the tail end of the session to amend the bill to this effect, because any sort of amendment at this period would kill the bill.

He insisted that the racing directors and officers were men of high repute in their communities, men who would not let down the bars to bookmaking and whose word on any proposition was worth millions of dollars.

"Refuse to pass this bill," said Senator Grady, "and you will find that it not only puts horse racing out of business and will send to England all of our fine horses and kill the great sport in our land, but that you will put every grocer, every lawyer and every other man and woman in this state in a position exactly similar to the race track officials. You can prosecute a lawyer for criminal responsibility if you find somebody playing eards for money in his office, no matter how ignorant the lawyer may be of the fact, and you can also prosecute every other man in whose office or home any kind of a gambling game goes on."

arose, he would not give the movement his indorsement. 'Give it a fair trial, lay the case before the Legislature and the people, and if the majority favor such amendment I will approve it,' were in effect the suggestions he made. Those in favor of the bill have used argument only, and that but slightly. It was not necessary. The wrong, illegality and unconstitutionality of the former racing bills, designed not to destroy gambling, but to crush a great sport and a vast industry, were so apparent that it was a matter of duty to correct the injustice. We may hope within a week to have it impossible in New York for one man to be convicted and sentenced and stigmatized as a criminal for the doings of another over whom he has no control, whose identity is unknown to him and of whom he has never heard of."

After the Assembly voted adversely on the Gittins bills Friday, August Belmont, chairman of the Jockey Club, was quoted in an interview as follows: "In my opinion this means that there will be no revival of racing in New York this year. It will also mean, I think, that owners like myself will be likely to send their horses away." Mr. Belmont said that he was not prepared to say that the enactment of the Gittins legislation would have put racing in this state on a favorable footing again. "So much damage has been done the sport," he said, "that the question of what it would take to revive it successfully is one that cannot be answered offhand."

Canon Chase said following the passage of the bill hand."

Canon Chase said following the passage of the bill in the Senate that he believed if Governor Dix signed the bill it would be a "calamity to the people." "The gamblers," he said, "will naturally be on their good behavior for the rest of the year, but the Gittins law will make a conviction for gambling extremely difficult."

AMBITIOUS PLANS FOR HAVANA RACING.

Track to Be Finer Than Any H. D. Brown Has Yet Built-Cheap Transportation.

Havana, Cuba, July 21.—H. D. Brown intends that he new track which he is building here and which Havana, Cuba, July 21.—H. D. Brown intends that the new track which he is building here and which will open for a winter meeting of high class on Thanksgiving day, shall be the best of all the racing plants that he has built. The track itself will be located on the outskirts of Havana, the loveliest and liveliest of all the cities of the Antilles—a city that within the past five years probably has attracted more tourists than any other in North America. It is a sport-loving city, with ample hotel accommodations and a street car and cab service that could scarcely be duplicated. For years some of the wealthest and best citizens desired a race meeting, but would not tolerate any that did not measure up to their ideals. They wanted good horses, grounds that would practically be a private park, and strict regulation. This is what they are promised at the new track.

would practically be a private park, and strict regulation. This is what they are promised at the new track.

The transportation will be especially convenient. Street cars will run to the main entrance, and from the center of the city to the club enclosure is the Grand Prada—a macadam boulevard, sixty feet wide, skirting the shores of the gulf, over which automobiles and carriages may go.

The course will be of the regulation mile type, with a six-furlongs chute for the sprint races and and a half-mile chute over which the two-year-olds may settle the question of supremacy. There will be 1,500 stalls, in barn sections of thirty, each of which will be equipped with electricity.

The stakes have already been mapped out. There will be a topline stake of $10,000, which probably will be the feature for the opening day, a Derby of $10,000, and others ranging in value from $1,500 to $5,000. Mr. Brown has engaged four large steamships to transport horses and horsemen to Havana and return at a rate less than one-third the usual fare. They will depart from New York, Jacksonville and other points that may be most convenient for horsemen. The trip is a short and pleasant one and Cuba will be seen at its best. The climate is dieal for man and horse, and Havana, for the past five years, has been one of the most sanitary and healthful of cities.

HORSEMEN WILL BE GIVEN REPRESENTATION.

Spokane, Wash., July 21.—Horsemen who come here to race during the inaugural meeting of the Coeur d'Alene Fair and Racing Association will be invited to select two members of the board of stewards that will supervise the racing at the Alan track. The new course will be entirely completed within two weeks, according to W. W. Finn, superintendent of construction, when a large contingent of British Columbia horses are expected to take up quarters at the track preparatory to the opening. Frank St. D. Skinner, who will serve as handicapper and judge, is expected here Sunday for a conference with the Coeur d'Alene Fair and Racing Association's officials.

General Manager Shelton and Steward Hildenbrandt of the Coeur d'Alene Association have gone to Butte to make a canvass of horsemen now racing there in the interest of the approaching meeting.

LIVELY BIDDING MARKS DECISION OF SELLING RACES AT WINDSOR

Three Runups Enrich Association Considerably and Several Horses Change Hands-Nimbus Wins

a Purse for Former Jockey Odom.

Detroit, Mich., July 21.—Today's program at Windsor was devoted in the main to selling races. While the fields lacked quality still they were evenly balanced and keen contests resulted. The "halter men," who have been exceedingly active on the Canadian circuit this season were again in the limelight. Three of the afternoon's winners were advanced and one of them changed hands. After Ta Nun Da had won the third race J. W. Flynn ran him up to $1,500 and secured him at that figure. This was an advance of $700 over the entered price. The next boost came after Light O' M' Life made a runaway victory of the fifth race, a dash of five and a half furlongs, for two-year-olds, in which the Schorr entry, Jawbone, ran second. Light O' M' Life was entered at $500 and Albert Simons, who trains Jawbone, ran the colt up to $1,605, at which figure J. W. May retained him for his owner, Frederick Johnson. S. C. Hildreth then claimed Jawbone out of the race for $1,010. May and his connections are reported as having won a big wager over Light O' M' Life's victory. After Arcite won the 'seventh race many gathered about the judges' stand, expecting a runup. They were not disappointed, as S. C. Hildreth stepped out and promptly carried the Carman horse from $500 to $900. He was bought in by his owner. Mr. Carman then claimed Compton, which finished second. The runup money during the afternoon totalled $2,310.

Herman Flippen won his first purse of the season when Prince beat a poor lot of jumpers in the steeplechase. George Odom took another purse when Nimbus galloped home an easy winner in the fourth race, a dash of one mile.

Numbus galloped home an easy winner in the fourth race, a dash of one mile.

A special horse train will leave here tomorrow night for Fort Brie. The following stables will be shipped on this train: August Belmont, R. E. Watkins, R. T. Wilson, A. G. Weston, R. F. Carman and Joseph E. Seagram. S. C. Hildreth will ship his string to Fort Erie on Monday and the Valley Farm Stable will go from here to Hamilton.

Osear Holder received a telegram from Francis J. Pons this morning asking that all horsemen be informed that a ninety-days meeting would be given at Charleston next winter. It is the purpose of Messrs. Pons and his associates to construct a modern racing plant at Charleston and to give a high-class meeting. Liberal purses will be distributed and about forty stakes will be given during the meeting. The list of officials have not as yet been amounced, but first-class men will be employed in the different departments. This is certainly good news for horsemen, for with Juarez, Havana and Charleston in operation, there will be plenty of winter racing.

Jockey Sweeney was suspended for two days by the starter, which accounted for his absence from the saddle this afternoon.

for its next meeting. Messrs. Parmer and Hendrie are doing their utmost to elevate the tone of the sport here.

The program for the closing day was made up of eight races. One of them, a $600 condition affair, failed to fill and Mr. Hendrie then instructed the secretary to offer a $1,000 handlcap, for three-year-olds, at one mile and a quarter. When John Whalen entered the Belmont colt, Watervale, it frightened out other owners, and only three were nominated. The result was that this race, too, was declared off. Horsemen who are stopping at Mt. Clemens report that Gene Elrod has improved rapidly during the past two weeks. He will remain at the springs a fortnight longer and will be in good condition for the fall meetings in Kentucky.

Dr. Graydon, who was threatened with blindness as a result of a gun shot wound last winter, is recovering the sight of one his eyes. He will be remembered by race-goers as trainer of Duke of Middleburg, winner of the Carter Handlcap at Aqueduct in 1899 and later as trainer for John H. Madigan.

Jockey J. Henry had his first mount following his reinstatement when he rode The Golden Butterfly in the third race. Henry has signed a contract to ride for John W. Flynn. The contract, which runs to November 1, has been approved by the committee of the Canadian Racing Associations.

Jockey Yourell, who had the mount on Dr. Heard in the steeplechase, suffered a broken collar bone and also a broken arm as a result of his fall from that horse at the second fence.

Louis Martine has disposed of a half interest in Grasmere to J. W. Burttschell and the horse will be handled by Mr. Burttschell in future.

Pluvious came out of his last race sore and will be rested for a couple of weeks. His next start probably will be at Hamilton.

Wm. A. Porter was among today's arrivals, He came from New York and will probably go from here to Mt. Clemens.

ANSWERS TO QUERIES.

V. L. J., Pittsburg, Pa. The bet on Campeon was draw.

Jake S., Chicago. The place bet on Octopus in ace 97247 won.

A. G. W., Buffalo, N. Y. The bet on Topland was a draw. Bets do not follow a horse to another race than the one on which made. A. J., Cleveland, O. The bet was void as to the Hogan & Keene entry because no place price was laid against it and stood as the others.

R. D., Danville, Ill., and others. A straight bet on Waterway won at the straight price at the track. So far as the betting was concerned, Expansionist's had no standing whatever. Bets were paid at the track on Waterway straight and place, show out; Octopus place and show and Dr. Koch show. This governs elsewhere.

BUTTE LAYERS HAVE PROFITABLE DAY.

Butte, Mont., July 21.—Although a program of inferior quality was down for decision today, it did not affect the attendance, which was up to the daily average. Form, however, was at a discount, not one of the public selections being able to finish in front and the ring in consequence recouped to an appreciable extent their recent losses. The defeats of Elsewhere, Lochlel and Dell were hard blows to the talent. At the conclusion of the fourth race W. B. Carson claimed Judge Quinn from H. G. Bedwell for $1.275. On account of the inconsistent running of the horse Prince Winter, his future entry was ordered refused by the judges.

AMERICAN IMPRESSIONS OF RACING ABROAD

AMERICAN IMPRESSIONS OF RACING ABROAD.

New York, July 21.—"Skater" Reynolds, who was in the employ of John W. Gates as a betting commissioner when that capitalist was cutting a swatch on the eastern turf, has just returned from Europe, where he saw some of the racing in England, France, Germany and Austria. He gave his impressions of some of the things that struck him forcibly while abread as follows:

"You know they do not bet as much money on a "You know they do not bet as much money on a race over there as we used to bet here at Sheepshead man into the ring to bet a thousand pounds on Sunstar for the Derby at 6 to 5, and he had to go to inventy-two books to get it down. I bet $88,000 on one horse at Saratogo some years ago, the majority of it at 6 to 5, I got it all on. Of course, there is a lot of betting in England long before a big event comes off over there and that makes some difference. Yes. I have handled some big bets in my time, and on one occasion I had a commission from Mr. Gates to bet $100,000 on Colonial Girl, while beart Hermish at 1 saw a lot of racing over there and I think the course of the friends, at a stiff price, with other places for those of lessor degree, and they really take their positions cheerfully. In England it's a guinea to the grandstand, but these general visitors to the grandstand, but the search the field easily with a fair change. This year he never gets and under off. IMPROVEMENTS AT CHURCHILL DOWNS.

Louisville, Ky., July 21.-Many improvements hav bousyille, Ny., 4uly 21.—Many improvements have been begun on the grounds of the New Louisville blockey Club at Churchill Downs that will be pushed to completion before the opening of the fall race meeting in September. The fence running from the clubhouse around the turn to the quarter post has been torn away, exposing to view the row of stables behind the old high fence and improving the view of that part of the track from the grand-tand.

Superintendent Keegan has raised the track all around on the inside after doing a lot of top soiling and he is lowering the field on the lower end of the backstretch, where a hedge now stands, so it will be possible to stand on the ground anywhere near the stand, betting ring and paddock and see every bit of the racing. The long table adoining the paddock will be removed to a point below the clubhouse on the upper turn and the size of the paddock inclosure materially increased.

The last relic of Col. M. Lewis Clark's regime, the picturesque clubhouse on the backstretch, now in an advanced stage of decay, will shortly be entirely removed and in its place will be erected a handsome modern cottage for the use of the track superintendent and his family. One of the most important improvements proposed is the enlarging of the brick lawn in front of the grandstand and betting ring. Ultimately it will be extended out fifteen feet, perhaps, and the part taken from the big course will be borrowed from the smaller inside track. When this is done the homestretch will be somewhat narrower, but the first turn will be widened considerably, an improvement which will tend to avoid crowding as the horses make the turn. The inside track may finally be sown to bluegrass with the idea of providing a turf course.

HORSES AT LONG ISLAND TRACKS.

New York, July 21.—Almost 200 horses are in training at the various Long Island tracks. At present there are thirty-seven stabled at Gravesend, there having been some depletion recently by shipments to Saratoga. John Hynes, the veteran turfman, has his lot there, old Itye among others. Charles Kohler's horses are also in training over the Brooklyn track, and Master Robert bids fair to come back a wonderfully good horse. Chickasaw and Heredia are others in the Kohler string.

Con Leighton is handling the Mr. Earle string, and the Thomas Monahan horses are also quartered there. Others are the strings of William Keating, J. L. McGinnis, John Mayberry, the Quincy Stable, Matt Allen, J. H. Valentine and several others.

The stables at Shepshead Bay include the horses of Frank Frisble, James R. Keene, Sam Booker, Wells Clark, Dr. Ashe and Ed Peters. The James R. Keene horses are in charge of Green, a colored trainer, who for several seasons was foreman for James Rowe, when the latter trained the horses of the Castleton Stud. James Rowe is now at Brook-dale, where he has charge of an immense string belonging to H. P. Whitney.

August Belmont has an even dozen in his own barn at Belmont Park, while another string, in charge of John Whalen, is campaigning over the Canadian circuit. Silas Veitch is training sixteen jumpers, the property of various owners. Grant Hugh Browne has six that are being trained by Ed Nash. Mr. Browne only recently returned from Europe. C. F. Clark has the Alan Pinkerton horses in his care and there are many others that are fit and ready for the bugle call.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

W. K. Vanderbilt's Belfast finished third in the Prix Carine of 2,000 francs at Tremblay in France Wednesday. Mr. Vanderbilt's Rainoire, ridden by O'Neill, won the Prix Bougie of 4,000 francs.

There will be a nineteen-days meeting at Musko gee, Okla.. beginning August 5. E. C. Smith wil preside and Arthur McKnight will do the starting. After that there will be fair meetings in Kansa and Oklahoma, which will afford the horses now it the southwest opportunities for racing throughout the fall.
